Help Us, Help Others

Alyssa Boston

My name is Alyssa Boston and I am a board member and event chair for Nothing Is Impossible, Inc. Outside of the foundation, I work as an Administrative Coordinator for a law firm in Florham Park, New Jersey whom I have been with for seven years. After hearing all of the great things this foundation has done to help people in need, I was ecstatic when I was given the opportunity to join the board. I have learned so much from my fellow board members and have been involved with making decisions to help countless amazing people.

Two months ago, we received an emergency referral from Senator Oroho's office. There was a woman who was disabled and supporting herself and her sons. While trying to keep up with the cost of her medical bills, she fell behind on her electric bill. The day the caseworker reached out to us, was the day her electricity was scheduled to be shut off. We were able to get our board members on a call right away and immediately took action. Through collaboration with Nothing is Impossible, JCP&L and Senator Oroho's office, we were able to keep her electricity from being disconnected. She stated that the electric company was literally at her house, shutting off her electricity when the worker was told to stop. "My sons and I thank you so much for your kindness and generosity!", she said.

As a mom, I could not imagine myself or my son living without electricity. Thanks to the generosity of people like you, Nothing is Impossible was able to act quickly and she and her children did not have to go through even a minute without power.

In this season of giving, I am hoping that you will consider helping us help others in a time of temporary crisis. Any little bit can go a long way.

“At the end of our lives, we will not be judged by how many diplomas we have received, how much money we have made or how many great things we have done. We will be judged by ‘I was hungry and you gave me to eat. I was naked and you clothed me. I was homeless and you took me in’.” – Mother Teresa 100% of all donations are given to those in need.

Please consider giving a gift to support the mission of Nothing Is Impossible as the tax year comes to close. Help us, help others for the holidays.
